Fire Precaution Is Urged By City Fire Department

The week of October 9th has been set aside throughout the United States, to honor the fire service and its efforts to protect the lives and property of our citizens.

The members of the Greencastle Fire Department therefore take this opportunity to encourage the individual to practice fire prevention in his home and at his place of employment by using the following suggestions for fire inspections:

1. Check heating plants, especially smoke pipe and chimney.
2. Check fuel lines and valves for leakage.
3. Clean basement and storage areas, remove trash, etc.
4. Remove paints, varnishes and flammable liquids from area around or near heating plant.
5. Check all exposed electrical wiring, remove frayed or damaged appliance and extension cords.
6. Provide ash trays and safety matches in areas used for smoking.
7. Insist on safe smoking habits, no smoking in bed, etc.
8. Have at least one fire extinguisher in the house.
9. Have the Fire Dept. phone number posted near the telephone.

If these basic rules are observed, you will probably not become a Fire Department customer in the future.

Two Programs Are Scheduled

The sounds of the "We Five" and the silence of pantomime capture the entertainment scene at DePauw University this weekend.

Dutch-born mime Frans Reynders will appear on the campus at 10 a. m. His appearance will be before a free university convocation in Meharry Hall.

A recent performer for CBS-TV's "One of a Kind" series, Reynders' 50-minute program will include nearly a dozen sketches.

The appearance of the We Five, popular recording group which scored first with "You Were on My Mind," is slated for 8 p. m. Friday in Greencastle's uptown gymnasium.

House Approves 'Pork Barrel' Bill

WASHINGTON UPI — Ignoring a final plea for economy, the House gave final approval Tuesday to a compromise $4.1 billion "pork barrel" appropriation for public works.

Quick Senate approval was expected, clearing the way for the bill to go to the White House. It included funds for atomic energy, river, harbor, flood and irrigation projects.

The compromise reached by House-Senate conferees was $191 million under last year's appropriation, $32 million under President Johnson's budget request for fiscal 1967 and $5 million under a version passed in the Senate.

However, the compromise was $23 million more than originally passed in the House which prompted Republican calls for economy cuts. They were disregarded.

Park Named

BOMBAY UPI — The vast field where Pope Paul VI met with the International Eucharistic Congress in 1964 will be named Pope Paul Park, city officials announced Tuesday.

Miss Carrie Pierce attended a music meeting at the Lincoln Hotel in Indianapolis.

Bob Bitzer was stationed at Cherry Point, North Carolina, with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Ray Herbert was hostess to the Delta Theta Tau Alumnae. Mrs. Perry Rush was assistant hostess.

NEW PASTOR

J. L. Schaffer has accepted the Pastorate of the Calvary Assembly of God Church, 20 Martinsville Road.

Rev. Schaffer has been pastoring in Alfordville, Ind.

He is married to the former Marilyn Slaven of Terre Haute. The Schaffers have three children, Susan, Cindy and Tim. They are attending Northeast School.

Rev. Schaffer has been in the ministry for the past eleven years. He has pastored churches in Indiana and California. He also traveled as an evangelist in the Assemblies of God.

Rev. and Mrs. Schaffer are talented in singing. They have had an active radio ministry for over five years.

Rock Island RR Is Strikebound

CHICAGO UPI — An estimated 2,500 switchmen walked off their jobs Tuesday night, tying up all traffic on the 8,000-mile-long Rock Island Lines Railroad.

A Rock Island spokesman, Ted Zirbes, said today that the road had obtained a temporary restraining order from federal Judge Joseph Sam Perry in Chicago.

The order, Zirbes said, would be served on several officers of the striking union and would restrain them from continuing the strike until Oct. 22 at which time a hearing would be held.

The sudden strike at 10 p. m. EDT took company and some union members by surprise. Trains were suddenly pushed off to siding from St. Paul, Minn., to Tucuman, N.M., stranding passengers and freight.

The shutdown forced an estimated 14,000 Chicago area commuters to get to work today from their homes south and west of the city.

Brisk Weather Across Nation

By United Press International

Autumn leaves, which inspire poetry and sometimes leaf-raking, fell across most of the nation in clear, brisk weather today.

A little rain dampened the Pacific Northwest, Texas and a stretch from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians.

It was cool in the East and Midwest. Some snow fell in the North Atlantic states. Jack Frost was expected to lay his icy coat across the Midwest to the Carolinas at dawn and disappear behind warm, southerly breezes.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 27 at Hibbing, Minn., to 80 at Corpus Christi, Tex. Naval Air Station.

Four Killed

MANILA UPI — Four children were killed in a rural village when a hand grenade they found exploded, the Philippine News Service reported Tuesday.

City Dump Is Now Re-Opened

As of today, the city dump at the Foxx site, southwest of the city, is now open from 7 a. m. until dark for Greencastle residents, but will be closed Sundays, Mayor Ray Fisher announced.

The gate to the dump will be locked at dusk and no dumping will be allowed at night.

Truckers will be notified to keep their loads covered. There is an ordinance to this effect and it will be strictly enforced.

Mayor Fisher said the Putnam County Sheriff's Department will cooperate and see that no trash is dumped along the road leading to the dump.

Laymen Will Conduct Service

It will be Laymen's Sunday in Fillmore Christian this Sunday, as the laymen of the church conduct the complete service at 9:30 A.M. Hugh Isenberg, board chairman, will preside and give the significance of this observance.

The Call to Worship and Invocation will be given by Gene Ozment. Kenneth Sutherland will read the Scripture and Paul Salmon will lead in the Morning Prayer. Herschel Nichols will preside at the Lord's Table as Communion is held, and Harvey Nichols and Lois Zeiner will serve as elders.

Two laymen of the church will bring the morning message. Ray Allen Nichols will speak on "The Laymen's Role in the Church" and Clarence Cooper will speak on "What is the Church." The benediction will be pronounced by Carl Crews.

This Laymen's observance is being held this Sunday in Christian Churches across the world to lift up the important place of laymen in the church. All the elders, deacons, deaconesses, and church officers will be recognized.

Fillmore Lions Club Sponsors Essay Contest

The Fillmore Lions Club, together with Lions throughout the world, is sponsoring a world-wide essay contest for youth on the most important world subject today — Peace. The contest offers $50,000 in total awards, including $25,000 first prize, and eight semi-final awards of $1,000 each, and travel expenses for eight winners to Chicago in July, 1967. Also, many thousands of local awards will be given.

The purpose of the contest is to develop a formula for world peace, because Lions feel that peace is attainable.

Lion President, Marion Sears, announced that the contest in Fillmore would be open to all youth of that community, 14-21 years of age. Mr. Daniels, the principal of Fillmore school, has the application and entry blanks for all youth who are interested, or they can contact Rev. George Pyke, chairman of the local contest. The Fillmore Lions will present a certificate and $10 to the local winner. Then the local winner will qualify for each consecutive level that he wins, until the final winner is selected from world-wide entries, at the Lions International Convention at Chicago in July, 1967.

Three judges will be announced later to conduct the judging of the contest in Fillmore.

Mr. Sears said he hoped local youth would accept the challenge and enter the local club's section of the contest. Closing date for local entries is December 10, 1966.

BULLETINS

FRANKLIN, UPI — Johnson Circuit Judge Robert S. Lybrook, in a decision made public today, ruled that the Indiana State Fair Board and the State of Indiana may be sued in connection with the 1963 State Fairgrounds Coliseum explosion which killed 74 persons and injured several hundred others.

CHICAGO UPI — The Switchmen's Union of North America today called off a surprise strike which had shut down the Rock Island Railroad in 14 states and stranded thousands of passengers.

Defense Secretary In Hottest Sector Of War

Two Are Jailed By City Police

Charles T. Hamilton, 19, and Richard Frederick Gates, 19, reported to be DePauw students, were lodged in the Putnam County jail at 3:50 this morning by City Officer James Grimes and Alva Hubble.

The two were taken into custody on Bloomington Street.

Hamilton was booked for driving while under the influence and a minor in possession of alcohol.

Gates was charged with being a minor in possession of alcohol.

Escapees Caught

Two State Farm inmates, who escaped from the Putnamville institution Tuesday afternoon while on an apple picking detail, were apprehended by Deputy Sheriff Paul Mason, one mile south of Greencastle on Ind. 43.

The two prisoners, Richard Harold Downing, 17, Marion County, and Elmer A. Hall, 18, Brown County, were turned over to Farm officials by Mason.

SAIGON UPI — Defense Secretary Robert McNamara flew into one of the war's hottest battlefields on the central coast today to learn first hand from American GIs what is needed to win the conflict.

The khaki-clad Pentagon chief flew into Phu Cat where the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division's "Operation Irving" is spearheading an Allied sweep that has killed or captured more than 2,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong in the past three weeks.

His helicopter, heavily guarded by accompanying gunships, touched down only 20 miles from where a Flying Horseman unit Tuesday discovered a jungle prison camp. Fleeing North Vietnamese guards had manacled 18 prisoners together, tossed them into a pit and massacred 12 with machine gun bursts and hand grenades. Seven somehow managed to escape, although all were wounded.

McNamara spent about an hour at Phu Cat, about 290 miles northeast of Saigon, before flying north of Da Nang, headquarters for U.S. Marines operating along the demilitarized zone—the war's other hot-spot.

Communist North Viet Nam took note of McNamara's visit today by filing an official note of protest to the International Control Commission.

"As is well known, each visit of McNamara to Saigon is also (Continued on Page 2)

Advancing inflation and continuing increases in educational and living costs were pinpointed as reasons for $100 increases in both tuition and room and board charges announced by DePauw University this weekend.

The action was taken Friday (Oct. 7) by the university's Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors.

The Board also voted a $40,000 addition to university scholarship funds to help students in serious financial need. Both decisions are to become effective in September, 1967.

Tuition at DePauw next year will be $1,600. Fees of $150 will remain unchanged. The tuition increase will apply to all students enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts, the School of Nursing and the School of Music. Slightly different charges apply to student nurses spending their last two years off campus.

Room and board next year at DePauw will be $1,000, or approximately $111 monthly over a nine month period. Current room and board charges of $900 have remained unchanged since 1962.

"No one applauds increases in charges, but all institutions must meet the costs of education," President William E. Kerstetter said. "Nor do trustees relish making such decisions. But as has been the case for many years at DePauw and elsewhere, the Board had absolutely no alternative short of sacrificing educational quality, which DePauw is not prepared to do."

"DePauw aims at continued excellence, and thus must meet financial requirements — requirements over which no single university or even all universities in time of inflation really can exercise control. The chief factors demanding attention are the costs of living and faculty and staff salaries."

"I hereby call on the chairman to resign as chairman and Governor Branigin to repudiate a man who would betray the great State of Indiana," Hayes wrote.

The Fort Wayne lawmaker also raised the question of whether the acceptance of Zenor's resignation was legal since the commission has 30 members and only 14 were present, not a quorum.

But Zenor, from his home in Bainbridge, said "I handed in my resignation in the feeling it would be accepted. My concern is this discord doesn't adversely affect the sesquicentennial program. I think the program has been very successful, although I am a little prejudiced, perhaps."

Zenor is an Indianapolis history teacher on leave to administer Indiana's 150th birthday celebration, which comes to an official close Dec. 11. Carmony is an Indiana University history professor. He declined comment on the letter written by Hayes.

Astronaut In Spanish Mishap

MADRID UPI — U.S. astronaut Charles (Pete) Conrad and three other Americans helped rescue nine Spaniards injured Tuesday when a light plane crashed into a truck filled with workmen.

One Spanish worker was killed in the mishap. No Americans were hurt, but Conrad said at one point he had to keep the three U.S. officials with him from approaching the aircraft because "it was in danger of exploding."

Vows Exchanged

Miss Vanessa Jane Boesen and William Allen Rossok were married in a double ring wedding ceremony, Sunday September 4, in the Putnamville Methodist Church. The Reverend James Bastin read the vows before the altar decorated with gladioli, palms and candelabra.

Bridal music was sung by Miss Jacqueline Schaefer and accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Williams on the organ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boesen of Putnamville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rossok of Greencastle, R. 1.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Michael Boesen. The maid of honor was Miss Gloria Elmore and the best man was Steve Winters. Ushers were Ron and Dean Rossok, brothers of the groom. The flower girl was Miss Lori Rossok and Miss Lori Kerr. Ring bearer was Mark Rossok and Jim Rossok was in charge of the wedding presents. Miss Leota Boesen registered the guests.

A reception was held in the basement of the church. Mrs. Jane Boesen, Mrs. Dwayne Costin and Miss Patty Rossok were in charge of the reception table.

Mr. and Mrs. Rossok are at home in Jacksonville, Florida where Mr. Rossok is stationed in the Navy.

Buffet Stroganoff Is Special Holiday Treat

Now's the time of year when you like to entertain often. And with dishes as kind to your budget as Buffet Stroganoff... savory meatballs in a delectable sauce... you can. As festive as dishes costing twice as much to prepare, Buffet Stroganoff features convenient canned beef gravy blended with sour cream.

Remember canned gravies... chicken, gilet, and mushroom, too... are always velvety-smooth and perfectly seasoned. Ready to use right from the can, there's no mixing or fussing. Cooking success is assured no matter whether you're preparing party dishes or hot supper sandwiches.

Complete your party buffet with a lettuce-onion-orange salad, a variety of brown and serve rolls, pumpkin ice cream pie (frozen in a gingersnap crust), and coffee.

Buffet Stroganoff

1 pound ground beef	Dash pepper
2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs	1 tablespoon shortening
3 tablespoons finely chopped onion	1 can (10 1/2 ounces) beef gravy
1 egg, slightly beaten	1/2 cup sour cream
1/4 teaspoon salt	cooked noodles
	Chopped parsley

Mix together beef, bread crumbs, onion, egg, and seasonings. Shape into 16 meatballs. In skillet, brown meatballs in shortening; pour off fat. Stir in gravy. Cook over low heat for 20 minutes or until done; stir now and then. Blend in sour cream; heat. Serve with noodle. Top with parsley. Makes 4 servings.

ways followed by stepped-up war in Viet Nam," the note said.

"The present visit of the U.S. defense secretary to South Viet Nam has clearly exposed the U.S. imperialists' scheme for new and extremely serious military adventures in stepping up the war of aggression in Viet Nam, in the hope of recouping their defeats and extricating themselves from the bog," it said.

It concluded with the usual demand for immediate withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Viet Nam.

McNamara, accompanied by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and several other top military and civilian leaders, arrived in Saigon Monday on the spot tour to determine how many more men and dollars the United States must send here to win the war.

Cloverdale Rites For Ora Allee

Mrs. Ora C. Allee, 82, of Quincy, died Tuesday at the Putnam County Hospital. She had been critically ill for the last three days.

Mrs. Allee was born March 10, 1884 in Owen County, the daughter of John and Kate Murphy. She was married to John W. Allee, who died in 1958. The deceased was a member of the Alaska Christian Church.

Surviving are three sons, Cecil Allee of Cloverdale, Ray Allee of Quincy and Archie Allee of Indianapolis, and three daughters, Mrs. Beatrice Goss of Mooresville, Mrs. Kathleen Schiender of Indianapolis and Mrs. Pauline Stockwell, Route 1 Gosport.

Also surviving are seventeen grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2:00 p.m. at the Whitaker Funeral Home in Cloverdale. The Rev. Fred Smith will officiate. Burial will be in the Mannan Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

History Made 474 Years Ago

By United Press International
The tropical night was warm and the seas were calm. Then, about 2 o'clock in the morning, Rodrigo de Triana, a sailor on watch on the "Nina," looked toward the western sky.

The sailor spotted what appeared to be a sliver of land on the horizon. It was the New World. The harrowing voyage of Christopher Columbus and 87 hearty adventurers was at an end.

At that moment, the age of discovery had begun.

And today, 474 years later, the great event was commemorated on both sides of the great ocean that Columbus crossed, notably:

A parade of some 75,000 persons of Italian-American extraction down New York's Fifth Avenue while the politicians, President Johnson among them, take a back seat.

A map-burning by several Yale Law School students "to reestablish faith in Christopher Columbus as the true discoverer of America."

In Genoa, Italy, birthplace of Columbus, a maritime crisis forced a cancellation of the traditional festivities honoring the greatest of the city's seagoing sons.

Band and choir students participated in the dedication ceremonies of the Indiana Sesqui-centennial Commission which was held Sunday afternoon, October 9, at Reelsville gym.

The purpose of the program was a dedication of a historical marker on U.S. 40 to indicate position of the 10 o'clock line, a northeast boundary of land acquired from the Indians in the early 1800's.

Sophomore Class

The sophomore class went to Turkey Run last Saturday for a class party. Everyone had a good time going on trails, riding bikes, and playing football and tennis.

We would like to thank Mr. Kirk, Mrs. Bullerick, Mrs. York, and Mrs. Yater for going with us.

Putnamville 5th and 6th
The initial enrollment in our room was 23 pupils — 10 in the fifth grade and 13 in the 6th.

We have two new students who enrolled in the 5th grade, Janice and Kenneth Ferrand who attended school last year at Fillmore and then Greencastle.

We were sorry to lose one of our 6th grade boys, David Gardner, who is moving to near Brick Chapel and will attend school at Bainbridge. The students in our room gave him a farewell party Friday afternoon. The girls served cake, ice cream, potato chips and Kool-Aid.

The students and teachers, along with the parents, are preparing for the annual Fall Festival here at Putnamville which will be held Friday night, October 21. Students are selling tickets for a camera which will be given away. We will also have The Country Store, Cake Walk and other activities for young and old to take part in.

Mrs. McCulloughs 3rd Grade

The boys and girls in the third grade have been studying Indians. We learned that the Indians in our state were good hunters and farmers. Today our state is known for its good farm land and good hunting.

We have a new girl, Kathy Anderson from Vigo County. We were glad to get another girl as we have 7 girls and 16 boys in our room.

In science we have been studying rocks and minerals.

We learned that limestone was formed under water many, many years ago. We tried making some limestone granules by blowing carbon dioxide into limewater and then letting it set for awhile. The children have brought in many different types of rock—sandstone, limestone—also clay and shale samples have been displayed.

Mr. Smith has been helping us with art. We cut paper pumpkins and bats for Halloween. We also made some masks.

Mrs. Wolff's 3rd Grade
There are 23 pupils in our section of the third grade. Mike Owens, Dennis Bernard and Gilbert Bowman are attending Reelsville School for the first time this year.

Todd Godfrey has a birthday this month.

In science we have finished studying about life on the desert. We learned that many animals live there and have learned how they survive. We made pictures from construction paper depicting plants and animals on the desert.

In math we have been reviewing our addition facts and learning the multiplication tables. Soon we will be writing stories about Halloween for everyone is becoming excited about this special holiday.

Home Ec Class Visits Fashion Show

The senior home economics class attended the 1966 Furniture Fashion Show and the Wonderful World of Sight and Sound on October 6th in the Manufacturer's Building, Indiana State Fairgrounds.

Mrs. Mildred Sonnefeld, home economics teacher, and Mrs. Marilyn Wagie, sister of one of the girls, furnished transportation.

The show was very interesting and educational. There were more than 100 professionally designed rooms, complete with all accessories. The color combinations were of the latest styles and design trends. Period furniture of dark and antique woods seemed to predominate with deep pink, moss green, and black the most impressive colors. The girls also enjoyed watching the taping of the "Easy Money Show" as they toured the building.

Mae Goodman Honored With Bridal Shower

A bridal shower was held honoring Mae Goodman, Tuesday at the Greencastle Federal Savings and Loan Community Room. Friends and relatives enjoyed watching Mae open the many lovely gifts she received. Games were played and prizes were won by Nancy Stevens and Betty Hartsaw. Cake and punch were served by Madonna Hurst, Sharon King, and Nina Saunderson, co-hostesses.

Mae will become the bride of John Archer, Friday, October 14 at 7:30 at the First Baptist Church. They will be at home to their friends on R. 2, Greencastle. No invitations are being sent, and all friends and relatives are invited.

Doctor, I'd Like To Know—

MY 14-year-old son has had a poor year as a student. The school psychologist felt that he was easily upset and emotionally insecure and that he needed psychological help. Can a physical condition ever be responsible for failure to study and to concentrate?

Mrs. D. B., Maryland
Dear Mrs. B.: There are many physical and emotional reasons for a poor study record. The period of puberty in boys and girls is always a turbulent one. They are no longer children in size and they are not yet emotionally mature enough to compete in an adult world.

In addition to the normal problems of puberty and early adolescence there may be physical reasons for their lack of intellectual coordination.

In your own state, at the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine in Baltimore, it was found that thyroid disorders could be responsible for poor school accomplishment. A group of children of various ages with overactive thyroids (hyperthyroidism) were found to lack the power of concentration. It has long been recognized that hypothyroidism, or low thyroid activity, can be responsible for sluggishness and poor intellectual attainment.

Present day psychological tests can often pinpoint the nature of a child's emotional problems.

However, before these elaborate psychological tests are begun, a complete examination is imperative to rule out all the physical possibilities for his poor scholastic performance.

I have been taking hormones after an operation on my ovaries. I have noticed that my voice is husky and I wonder if there can be any relationship between the two?

Mrs. S. O., Massachusetts
Dear Mrs. O.: Cases have been reported of huskiness and masculinization of the voice after taking hormones for a long period of time. This, however, is not the only cause of hoarseness. It may be a pure coincidence that the hoarseness should have occurred at the time you were taking this medication.

The larynx can be easily and quickly examined and can reveal any one of the other possible causes. A slight hemorrhage into one of the vocal cords, a polyp or a nodule may be the reason rather than the hormone.

If the hormone is responsible, the vocal cords usually return to normal when the hormone is discontinued. Let me hasten to assure you that the problem is not a serious one.

My only experience is that underlying your question is the subtle fear of a cancer. You can be reassured immediately by the direct examination of the larynx.

TV Cameras On Apollo Spaceship

WASHINGTON UPI — Television cameras will accompany the first three-man crew aboard the Apollo spaceship to give American home viewers their first live pictures from space, the federal space agency said today.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said the crew would take along a small, hand-held camera on the first Apollo flight, scheduled for a mission of up to 14 days tentatively in early December.

Subsequent missions—including the first American landing on the moon—also call for the use of television.

The Russians have had live television on several of their manned space flights. But the United States, in the Mercury and Gemini programs leading up to Apollo, has not had boosters powerful enough to handle the extra weight of a television camera.

Named to fly the first manned Apollo mission are Lt. Col. Virgil Gus Grissom and Lt. Col. Edward White, both of the Air Force, and Navy Lt. Roger B. Chaffee. Their flight will be the first in the series leading up to a landing by two astronauts on the moon.

The NASA spokesman said that not only would the small camera be used to take pictures of earth from the spacecraft's window, but would be used to help ground controllers keep tabs on the flight by photographing the cabin's instrument panel.

"If all works well, everything checks out, we hope we'll have some pictures for the networks on the first flight."

State Suffers Big Corn Loss

WASHINGTON UPI — The Agriculture Department estimated Tuesday that Indiana corn growers suffered a 16 million bushel loss in the corn crop during the month of September because of drought damage.

As a result, Indiana appeared likely to wind up in a tie with Illinois for fourth among the states for average yield per acre. The department's Oct. 1 estimates indicated Iowa, Ohio and Wisconsin would finish in that order in bushels per acre.

The Oct. 1 estimate called for a production of 416,488,000 bushels, an average of 79 bushels per acre in Indiana.

The estimate on July 1 showed prospects of 490,296,000 bushels and an average of 93 bushels per acre for nearly an all-time record and tops among the 10 biggest corn-producing states.

The loss since July totaled nearly 74 million bushels. Rains had been generous enough up to July to get the newly planted crop off to a good start, but then the dry spell set in.

In 1955, Indiana produced 467,556,000 bushels of corn, an average of 94 bushels per acre. After the bumper prediction of July 1, the estimate dropped to 87 bushels Aug. 1 and 82 bushels Sept. 1.

Indiana and Illinois were the only states to show losses in the estimates during the past month. Iowa's prospects gained along with those of Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio, Wisconsin, South Dakota, and Michigan. Missouri's estimate was unchanged.

The 74 million bushel loss since July was expected to cost Indiana farmers $100 million or more, not counting losses to other crops because of disastrous weather.

The Oct. 1 estimate indicates Iowa will produce 878 million bushels per acre, Ohio 254 million and 85 per acre, and Wisconsin 134 million and 92 per acre.

Wounds Wife, Takes Own Life

ELKHART, UPI — An Elkhart area man shot his wife and then committed suicide with the same gun, authorities reported today.

Elkhart County sheriff's deputies said Joseph Griffin, 62, fired a shot which wounded Mrs. Anna Griffin, 63. Then he fired another which killed him.

Mrs. Griffin was taken to Elkhart General Hospital and was reported in "good" condition today and on the road to recovery.

The shooting occurred in the Griffin home north of Elkhart Tuesday night. Motive for the shooting was not known, authorities said.

Roachdale Cast To Present Play

The Senior Class of Roachdale School will present the three act play, "Pick A Dilly," in the high school gym at 8:00 p. m. on Friday, October 14.

The play is a comedy about a young man who will inherit part of a large fortune if he marries one of the three Dilly Sisters. Much of the story revolves around his problems in deciding which one of the girls to marry and their problems in deciding who will make the supreme sacrifice by marrying him.

Fall Rainbows

Opal, the beautiful gemstone associated with those who celebrate their birthdays in October, is remarkable for its rainbow of natural color. While the background or body color of the stone may vary from a milky white, to orange, to a deep bluish-green (almost black) color, the opal is distinctive for its flashing rays of red, yellow, green, violet and blue. It is this unusual play of coloring inside the stone that ranks opal as one of nature's phenomenal gems.

For much too long a period, opal was looked upon with some disfavor and superstition due to a novel written by Sir Walter Scott. Queen Victoria of England did much to correct the harm done by "Anne of Geierstein" when she gifted each of her daughters with fine opals. In fact, today, opals are often found in fine antique jewelry pieces of the Victorian era.

As a birthstone, the opal is considered the symbol of hope. However, its appeal is not limited to the October-born. Opal rings are among women's loveliest adornments. The fascination of opal lies in the fact that no two gems are alike. It has never been, and probably never will be, successfully imitated.

The beauty and value of an opal depends upon its flashing colors. This play of color is caused by the interference of light through reflection among the thin plates within the gem. Unfortunately, the natural sources for the best specimens are almost "worked out." However, we do have some lovely opals in stock, so do stop in and see their beauty for yourself.

Means Forever

VIENNA UPI — Marriage "for better or for worse" also means forever, according to Communist authorities in Romania.

Radio Bucharest, in a broadcast heard here, announced new laws allowing divorces "in exceptional cases only."

Even then, court proceedings can only be started after a six to twelve month "think it over" period.

COATESVILLE NEWS

by Joe Davidson, Correspondent

Next week will bring to mind two important men that have made history. One is Christopher Columbus and the other Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The first time I was ever on a ship at sea I was going from Norfolk to Boston. On the morning following the first night out a storm struck. We were out of sight of land and white caps cracked and snapped like whips that sent spray and spume at times over the deck. It was worse as the ship rounded the Nantucket Shoals. Everyone, even sailors, were seasick. I thought of Columbus sailing in a mere tub to what what I was on, and with a crew of superstitious sailors. From that experience at sea to the present day I have had respect for a man who dared.

October 14 is the birthday of Dwight D. Eisenhower, who first saw the light of day in a Kansas home in 1890. There were two things at least that helped him to the Presidency: First, he was our great leader in World War II and second, a chant was started that echoed from coast to coast: "We like Ike."

On a scenic, paved road that leads from Banff, Alberta, in western Canada, the traveler, as he heads north, will stop to see and to take a picture of Mount Eisenhower. The mountain stands with snow covered summit over ten thousand feet into cold, thin air. It is a rugged mountain named for a rugged soldier, a statesman, educator, farmer, and national advisor.

Last Thursday morning forty-two ladies of the Amo-Coatesville Demonstration Club made their annual pilgrimage, this time to Richmond. Among the outstanding places visited was Hill's thirty acres of roses under glass, the largest thing of its kind in the United States. A three hundred acre forest preserve was visited where practically every native tree known is growing and will continue to be grown so that children of future generations can familiarize themselves with our trees when all other forests are gone.

A stop was made at the Little House where there was on exhibit the work of mental patients of a Richmond Hospital. The club ladies found that these patients did wonderful work in drawings, paintings, weaving, basket work and other forms of art and crafts.

Those who made this interesting trip had a lovely dinner together at one of Richmond's fine restaurants.

Sergeant and Mrs. Richard A. Layman of Junction City, Kansas, have over the past few months had the following guests from Indiana: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde K. Layman, Roy Russell and Cathy; Mrs. Louise Bova of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Layman, Gregg and Chris; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Woodall of Greencastle, and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Clark, Janet, Jon and Joyce of Villmore.

The most recent visitors were Clyde Layman of Coatesville; Mrs. Berniece Kersey of Amo and Mrs. Jo Ann Edwards and small son, Jimmie, of Stilesville.

The Coatesville Library Board held their monthly meeting at the local library Monday evening, October 3. Those in attendance were John Bomber, Mable Davidson, John Gambold, Ruth Owens and Louise Phillips.

The Coatesville Community Kindergarten started Monday, October 3, in the downstairs assembly room of the Civic Building. The number of youngsters enrolled was 17. School begins at 8:15 and dismisses at 11:15, and the school days are Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The teacher this year is Mrs. Clifford Phillips. She has a college degree, has had public school and kindergarten teaching experience.

Soybeans are coming to the local elevator in long truck processions since there has been some drying weather. Those who handle the beans report that the quality is good and the average will run about thirty bushels per acre.

Do you have your walnuts hulled and drying for winter? You may not realize it but they are scarce this year. A drive of four miles over a road that has as many as fifteen roadside trees revealed no more than two bushels of walnuts in the hull. (Continued on Page 5)

Coatesville

One has to smile as he thinks back to years ago when a family could hardly get through the winter season on less than a bushel of walnuts and hickory nuts. Every little hand raised at the country school to answer teacher's question was a hand stained black with walnut and hickory juice. It was a long time wearing off but no one minded.

Mr. Lloyd Eilar, a well-known farmer of near Clayton, died suddenly last week of a heart attack. He leaves, besides the wife, Floretta, five children and ten grandchildren. He was brought to the Weaver Funeral Home in Coatesville. Funeral services were held in the Stilesville Christian Church Sunday at 2:00 and burial was in the Stilesville Cemetery.

Another well-known and respected citizen of near Clayton, Ellis Walker, passed away Tuesday. He was a farmer and school teacher and he taught several years at the Belleville School. He leaves a wife, Helen, and a son, James, of Clayton R. R., along with six grandchildren. Services were held Friday at the Weaver Funeral Home of Clayton, and burial was in the Center Valley Cemetery.

All the good Coatesville fans who root for Cascade surmised that after the New Market game the road leading to the end of the season would be rough, and the Danville game proved just that. Cascade was outclassed by a squad that understands more of the fine points of football and can maneuver to get the breaks when they come. It was no big surprise that the Cadets took a 32-0 loss at Danville's Homecoming. The Warriors had it made from the second and through the third quarter on beautiful long and well-executed passes.

John Dickey of Cascade suffered a fractured collarbone in practice the past week.

A business place in town was burglarized this weekend. When some of the members of the Collier Lumber Company opened the office Saturday morning, they found that it had been entered by breaking out glass. There is no report on money taken or merchandise hauled away.

Another story of robbery was circulated about town Saturday of a Mrs. Wilms of Groveland who had a check cashed in her home town and was followed home and robbed by a strange man who witnessed the cashing of the check.

There was a home broken into southeast of town this past week. Someone entered the Leo Cassidy residence and carried off some guns belonging to Leo's sons.

This past week was as bad for Cascade athletic teams as it was for the Dodgers. The seventh grade football team journeyed to Martinsville and were upended 25-0.

The Cross Country Cadets were defeated by Greencastle by a lopsided margin and then took on a new school known as Boone Grove and were really trimmed. One Grove lad broke a school record by covering the two miles in 9:55. The Cadets were defeated 32-0.

The M.Y.F. recently organized takes all boys and girls who care to join from age 13 to one ready to graduate from high school. New officers elected are as follows: President, Phil Winger; vice president, Joyce Phillips; Treasurer, Brenda Ellett; and secretary, Brenda Fuson.

These young folk are planning a chili supper at the local church October 22. Tickets will soon be ready and can be had from any M.Y.F. member.

WALL STREET CHATTER

NEW YORK UPI — Bache & Co. says that while it is not likely there will be a dramatic market turnaround, over the near-term a number of relatively undervalued investment grade issues continue to provide attractive yields and hold the promise of recovery rewards for the patient investor.

Hornblower & Weeks-Hemphill, Noyes says technical studies indicate the market has been attempting to form a base on which a broad recovery could be staged but progress in this direction has not been reassuring until prospects for a sustained uptrend become more convincing, the firm says, investors are likely to maintain a wait-and-see attitude.

The Alexander Hamilton Investment confidence is at a low ebb, it sees no reason to become panicky and sell good equities.

Would Call Up Trained Reserves

WASHINGTON UPI — Army Secretary Stanley R. Resor believes trained individuals rather than whole units should be called if reservists must be called to active duty.

This was disclosed Tuesday night in a confidential memorandum, known in the Pentagon as a "working paper," which circulated among high officials. A Defense Department spokesman said there is "no current proposal by the Army to call up any reserves." He said the paper was the thinking of Resor on the course to be followed if a callup came.

Earlier Tuesday Congress passed and sent to the White House the $58 billion defense appropriation bill which also contained unsought authority for the President to call individual reservists.

The callup provision of the bill technically would apply to almost all the nearly 1 million men in the National Guard and the ready reserve forces of the military services.

Johnson had not sought the authority nor given any indication he would use it. It was passed in Congress under pressure from those who believe reserve service had become an escape hatch for those trying to avoid the draft and Viet Nam duty.

The Pentagon spokesman said the Resor memorandum's recommendation was only for the callup of the so-called "ready reserves," comprised of men with prior Army training. An estimated 30,000 men are in this force.

Shopping Guide

WASHINGTON UPI — The food shopping notes for this weekend are somewhat brighter. Beef and pork supplies are increasing and many vegetables and fruits are either coming into harvest or still in good supply.

Roast beef and steak cuts are reasonably priced this weekend so you might plan to stock up or buy larger amounts. Also, in the pork section, chops, steak and roast cuts are good finds for the economy-minded shopper.

In many areas, egg prices are reported dropping. Check for specials. And broiler-fryers and turkeys remain good protein buys.

On the vegetable counter, carrots, celery, onions, peppers and tomatoes are in bountiful supply in most areas of the country.

And look for apples, grapes, pears and bananas when you are out shopping for fruits. All are good weekend buys.

Fish sticks and portions and canned tuna are the national fish plentiful for weekend shopping.

Newsman Dies

PARIS UPI — John E. Lee, former International News Service manager for France, has died at his Riviera home, it was learned Tuesday.

Lee, 58, a native of New York City, retired in 1958 when INS merged with United Press to form United Press International. Lee was a correspondent in North Africa and Europe during World War II and settled in Paris after the war.

SCHOOL NEWS

Everyone at C.H.S. seems very busy! It seems this week we're really cracking the books as the first grading period comes to an end.

Cheers were heard coming from the Cloverdale gym October 4 as six girls tried out for Junior Varsity Cheerleader. The four lucky girls for the 1966-67 season are Debbie Lucas, Gail Spires, Portia Collier and Diana Denny.

It's rumored the Thespians have big plans for a Christmas show this year. The new officers are President, Alicia Casida; Vice President, Fayette Staley; Secretary, Marsha Sutherland; Treasurer, Vivian Whitaker. A past graduate of C.H.S., Janice Jordan, was seen Monday morning visiting her old

Many Mexicans Homeless Today

TAMPICO, Mexico UPI — Heavy new rains, the legacy of Hurricane Inez, drove thousands from their homes across populous northeastern Mexico today. Officials estimated the number of refugees at 30,000. Inez caused widespread destruction and at least one death in the area before smashing to its death in the Sierra Madre range Monday night. First estimates placed damage, mostly to cotton crops, at $40 million.

Before striking the coast north of here with 135-mile-an-hour winds, Inez had killed nearly 300 persons on an erratic 16-day rampage through the Caribbean and Gulf of Mexico.

Its winds were no longer a threat, but officials today feared the heavy rains could add to the destruction.

With rains still falling, many rivers were reported near flood stage in the state of San Luis Potosi and Nuevo Leon. In Tamaulipas State, authorities said the Guahale River had overflowed its banks and that water was up to the rooftops in the village of Santa Clara.

4 H News

The first meeting of the Willing Workers 4-H Club was held Monday, October 3, at Clinton Center School at 7:30 p.m. President Judy Stevens called the meeting to order. The pledge to the American Flag was led by Debbie Grassick. Davonna Eckert led the 4-H Flag. The election of club officers was held. They are as follows: President, Judy Stevens; vice-president, Linda Phipps; secretary, Kathy Reynolds; treasurer, Lynn Farrow; news reporter, Davonna Eckert; health & safety, Nancy McGaughey; song leaders, Carolyn Davis, Becky Tiffin; recreation, Karen Farrow, Lina Eckert.

Mrs. June Harbison is the leader until January 1, then Mrs. Almada Farrow will take over.

There were several new members this year. Last year's officers got pins to wear with their office name on them. Dues are the same as last year, $1.00.

The next meeting of the Willing Workers 4-H Club is November 7 at Clinton Center School.

Helmets Required

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — A new Indianapolis city ordinance requiring two-wheeled motor vehicle riders to wear crash helmets became effective today.

Police said no warning stickers would be issued to violators and arrests would be made effective immediately unless riders are wearing helmets made of metal or fiberglass with padded lining.

The ordinance permits fines of up to $100 and jail sentences of up to 10 days.

Injury Plagued Wildcats Face Tough Part of Season

CHICAGO UPI — Alex Agase expected no quarter as a Marine lieutenant in the South Pacific during World War II. So, he expects none now as a Big Ten football coach with such teams as Florida and Notre Dame on his non-conference slate.

"We've got to play them anyhow," Agase exclaims. "What good would it do to moan about injuries?"

Northwestern has won only once in four outings last Saturday at Oregon State but Agase has had to patch up his squad from week to week to put even the semblance of a lineup on the field. Both of his line-backers were knocked out of action in pre-season practice. His defensive ends have been decimated.

"If you see a strange face out there at guard," he said last week, "it'll be me."

Agase started this football season with what some observers deemed as good an offensive backfield as any team in the Big Ten, Dennis Boothe at quarterback, Woody Campbell at halfback, Bob McKelvey at fullback and Chico Kursawski at flanker.

But even that quarter has been abandoned. Bill Melzer, a walk-on without aid who wanted to play football, has taken over at quarterback, and the other backs are about the only positions on the offensive until still unchanged from pre-season drills.

"We've got two sophomores playing linebacker now," Agase said. "Our defensive tackle was a defensive end, and we've got a sophomore at defensive end. But they've been doing a good job."

The good job was the most that Agase could expect from his decimated roster. "We'll use players two ways now," he said, "because they're our best men. Players like Cas Banaszek and Angelo Loukas and others."

Agase's happiest moment this season almost had to come after his Wildcats played highly ranked Notre Dame, coached by Ara Parseghian, who passed him at Northwestern. Agase was an assistant to Parseghian there.

"We think we can beat them," Agase said before the game.

"Maybe not, but we won't quit."

Northwestern's players never faltered, even though defeated by a 35-7 score, getting their touchdown with 30 seconds to play.

"We were still taking the game to them in the last minute," Agase said.

Then, he went on. "A lot of people are feeling sorry for us, and for me. Well, I want to tell you, there's one guy not feeling sorry for me, and that's me."

Clovers Win

Cloverdale's cross country team, running against tough competition, defeated Martinsville and was second to Columbus in a triangular meet held at Martinsville, Monday. The Clovers had five runners finish in the first ten, but still couldn't offset the one-two finish of the fine Columbus team.

Cloverdale finished the regular season with a 12-3 record and Coach Al Tucker plans to enter his team in the sectionals at Terre Haute, October 21.

Scoring: Columbus 30, Cloverdale 35, Martinsville 56.

Winning time: 11:30.

Indianapolis Washington Rated Top Team by UPI

By Kurt Freudenthal

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Unbeaten Indianapolis Washington today became the third team to set the pace for Indiana's high school football powers this season.

The UPI coaches' board elevated the Continentals to first place from the runnerup spot they occupied the past two weeks after LaPorte's 19-0 surprise loss to South Bend Washington last Friday.

There were other major repercussions based on last week's results as all "Big 10" berths had new occupants. South Bend's Panthers and undefeated Fort Wayne South moved into the select circle and LaPorte was demoted to a tie for sixth place.

Coach Bob Springer's Washington crew, leading the elite for the first time, polled four first-place votes and 76 out of a possible 100 points. But one panel member did not vote for first place at all, an obvious indication he was reluctant to do so after last weekend's upset wave.

Gary Wallace got the nod for first on three ballots and the two others were split between Evansville Harrison and LaPorte.

Hammond Morton, leader the first two weeks, moved up from third to second with 63 points and Wallace was third with 54. East Chicago Washington, tied for fifth last week, with Wallace, was fourth with 53 points and Harrison slipped from fourth to fifth with 46.

South Bend Adams, ninth last week, tied LaPorte for sixth place; Lafayette was dropped from seventh to eighth after its narrow victory over Indianapolis Cathedral. South Bend Washington, beaten only by Adams, climbed from nowhere to ninth, and South Side from 11th to 10th. South Bend Washington was fourth early in the season before being demoted.

Also voted down were South Bend Riley and New Albany. Riley, eight last week, was voted down to a tie for 19th place after its 27-7 loss at the three-time loser Elkhart and New Albany slipped from 10th to 12th following its 13-12 win at Clarksville Providence.

Partner Must Choose Wrinkles Or Success

By Alfred Sheinwold

"Please explain something," pleads a desperate correspondent who signs herself "Regular Reader." "I have the kind of partner who says nice things to the opponents and mysterious things to me. The latest came out of the accompanying hand.

"I refused the first trick, took the second spade and led a heart. East won and returned a spade to my ace. Now I ran the hearts.

"West discarded a club without any pain, and then threw a diamond after some thought. Eventually I tried the club finesse, and West took the king of clubs and the spades, defeating the contract.

"My partner complimented West for blanking his king of clubs so quickly. Then my partner sneered in my direction: 'If you can't guess singleton king, don't put yourself in that position.'

"Is there any sure way to guess singleton kings?"

DIFFERENT MEANING

Yes—you peek. But no girl whose first name is "Regular" would want to do a thing like that. Your partner meant something else.

You cannot make the contract if West has both of the missing high cards, and you cannot lose it if East has the king of clubs. The problem arises only when West has the king of clubs and East has the ace of hearts.

After taking the second trick with the king of spades, lead a diamond to dummy's ace and try the club finesse. West wins, but his hand is then dead. You can later knock out the ace of hearts in comfort.

Working out a difficult hand like this could put wrinkles in a girl's forehead. Ask North if he wants you to look pretty or to make three notrump.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner deals and bids one heart, and the next player passes. You hold: S-8 3; H-K Q 7; D-A 6 5 3 2; C-J 10 4. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds. Show your heart support at your next turn. This indicates that your hand is too strong for an immediate raise to two hearts but not good enough for a jump to three hearts.

Pope Will Not Accept Spellman's Resignation

NEW YORK UPI — Pope Paul VI has refused to accept the resignation of Francis Cardinal Spellman as Archbishop of New York and Vicar of U.S. Armed Forces.

Cardinal Spellman, 77, revealed Monday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's Cathedral that in accordance with a recent Vatican directive calling for retirement of bishops over 75 years of age, he had tendered his resignation in a letter to Pope Paul on Sept. 21.

The Cardinal then announced to the hushed crowd of 3,000 that "Just this morning I received word from the Holy Father that he wishes me to continue for the present as Archbishop of New York and military vicar."

The cardinal added that "I accepted this decision of His Holiness as God's will for me, and I shall carry on in these responsibilities as long as I am able, to the best of my ability."

Cardinal Spellman is the first U.S. bishop to reveal he complied with the directive.

Other American bishops over 75 are James Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles, 80, Archbishop Karl J. Alter of Cincinnati, 81, Joseph Cardinal Ritter of St. Louis and Archbishop Robert E. Lucey of San Antonio, both 75.

Johnson Stumps Eastern States

WASHINGTON UPI—President Johnson today opens a two-day campaign swing through three eastern states in what was likely to be the last of his domestic politicking before departing for the Far East.

Johnson was stopping in nearby Baltimore before going on to New York for a swing through the city and the populous suburbs of Long Island to boost the gubernatorial candidacy of Democrat Frank D. O'Connor.

The Baltimore stop was for a major speech in which the President was to announce his plans to ask Congress for major changes in Social Security, including an increase in benefits that would boost them 10 per cent.

The President was in New York last Friday for a speech but spent no time campaigning, stumping instead in Newark, N.J.

After an overnight stay in New York and a meeting with Laotian Premier Souvanna Phouma Thursday, Johnson flies to Wilmington, Del., on behalf of Gov. Charles Terry and Rep. Harris McDowell's re-election bids.

Friday Johnson is to have a White House meeting with British Foreign Secretary George Brown, presumably to discuss the Viet Nam war, a subject that next Monday becomes a central concern of the President for the next 17 days.

On Monday Johnson leaves for a tour of six Asian countries, including a Manila summit meeting on Viet Nam Oct. 23-27. He is due to return to this country Nov. 2.

LSD Exponent Under Arrest

NEW YORK UPI — U.S. customs agents Tuesday arrested Dr. Timothy Leary, leading exponent of the use of the controversial drug LSD.

Leary was seized at La Guardia Airport under a section of federal law prohibiting users of narcotics or convicted narcotics violators to leave or re-enter the United States without permission.

Customs agents said Leary was picked up when he stepped from a Toronto-to-New York plane.

Leary was scheduled for arraignment before a U.S. commissioner.

Leary, who was sentenced to 30 years in prison on a narcotics violation which he is appealing, recently announced that he had founded a new religion based on the "sacramental" use of LSD, marijuana and Peyote.

The new religion is called the League of Spiritual Discovery.

Coed's Part-Time Post Is One Whale Of A Tale

By ROBERTA ROESCH

Twenty-Year-Old Betsy Clark of suburban Philadelphia is literally having a whale of a time working her way through college.

"I am majoring in retail management at Drexel Institute of Technology," she told me, "but on weekends, holidays and any day I have no classes I ride Willie the Whale. It is one of the only two North Atlantic pilot whales in captivity, in Philadelphia's giant marineland, Aquarama.

"In the summer," she continued, "I work at Aquarama on a full-time basis.

Regarded As Hobbies

"I had always thought of sports and swimming as my hobbies," Betsy explained, "until I visited the Aquarama two seasons ago. Then while I was watching the show that day, and noting that I could do the synchronized swimming and underwater ballets that were being featured, I decided I would like a summer job working at that tourist attraction."

Betsy went to see the manager as soon as the show was over. After she told him what she could do and asked him for a job, he, in turn, asked Betsy if she could ride a whale.

Wanted The Job

"Up to that point I had no idea of riding one," she said, "but because I wanted the opportunity to work at Aquarama I wasn't about to have a mere whale swim between me and a chance for a job.

"So I asked to see the whale. Next, I talked to the trainer. And then I said I would take the job."

Betsy began training to ride a one-ton mammal by first becoming friends with both Willie and Winkie, the two whales that were transported from Newfoundland's Trinity Bay to Philadelphia.

"To get acquainted with Willie I sat near his tank by the hour, talked to him and scratched his back," she explained. "When I felt we both were ready for my first whale ride, I grabbed his dorsal fin and hopped on."

Since that initial ride on Willie (Betsy says he is so fast he could race an ocean liner), she has helped train the whale to do such things as shake hands, jump through hoops, retrieve dumbbells, soar 16 feet in the air to touch a ball, and wear a hat.

Family Opinion

"Riding a whale may be a strange way to get through college," says Betsy, who has been busy combining school work with part-time jobs ever since she was 15. "In fact, my family thinks I am crazy."

"But I meet all kinds of interesting people. And the job I worked up the courage to ask for is something that is never boring."

Inside WASHINGTON

SENATE MAY VOTE
ON TROOPS ABROAD

SOME DEMOCRATS
HOPE TO CUT THEM

By HENRY CATHCART
Central Press Washington Writer

WASHINGTON—Senate Democratic leaders think they have done President Johnson a favor in pressing for a Senate declaration calling for a "substantial reduction" of U.S. troop commitments to Europe. The President's reaction has been one of, "Thanks, fellows, but spare me such favors."

senator Mansfield

vote

Despite this and the fact that the move has both split the Democratic membership and produced opposition from key Republicans, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield wants to bring the issue to a vote. Why this insistence on a matter which can only point up Democratic differences just before an election?

One answer is that it's a reflection of the nation's frustration. People are tired of being slapped by French President De Gaulle and snubbed by allies unwilling to do more for themselves or help meet the Red threat in Viet Nam.

Another explanation is that the 13-man Democratic Policy Committee which cooked up the resolution thinks it would strengthen Johnson's hand in NATO.

Unfortunately, the Democrats' timing could hardly have been worse. Britain's government, struggling to stave off economic disaster with stern controls, feared that even serious talk of a U.S. troop cutback might shatter its precarious position. That would send shock waves in many directions. Moreover, the Communists might be tempted to fire up fresh trouble in the Middle East or elsewhere.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen rode to Johnson's rescue. He urged Republicans to boycott the proposal. Without bipartisan backing, it will have little strength.

● FUN AND GAMES—Good thing Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, the First Lady's press secretary, has a finely-honed sense of humor.

Friends report: Not long before President Johnson's daughter, Luci, was married to Patrick J. Nugent, Liz Carpenter received a phone call which interrupted her quiet socializing at a Washington affair. The caller, who sounded like a news fraternity friend, advised her that the Luci-Pat wedding had been postponed.

Taken in for the moment, Mrs. Carpenter placed a call to double check with Luci—before she learned it was all a fake. Her "tipster," it turned out, was Presidential Press Secretary Bill Moyers, who had made the call from an adjoining room.

● DAMP TRACKS—The publishers of Sen. Claiborne Pell's new book on high-speed rail travel, "Megalopolis Unbound," had a good public relations idea for a party. They staged it aboard the Pennsylvania Railroad car, "Lady Bird Special," used by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson during the 1964 campaign.

Received Trail Postponement

INDIANAPOLIS UPI —
Marion County Deputy Prosecutor William Byrum Tuesday requested and received a postponement in the scheduled trial of Larry Sax, Peoria, Ill., on first-degree burglary charges.

Sax faces charges of breaking into the home of a prominent Indianapolis woman, Mrs. Alma Lieber. Byrum said he asked for the postponement because his chief witness, Mrs. Lieber, was unable to appear at this time. A new date has not been set.

The case is scheduled for

Foreign News Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
(Notes from a correspondent just returned from South Viet Nam.)

First, after a speech delivered immediately upon return from another couple of months spent in South Viet Nam on my fourth visit to that beautiful but unhappy land, the man who drew me aside and demanded: "Now tell me! What really is happening in South Viet Nam?"

Or the note awaiting me at my desk in New York from an intelligent woman who wrote: "We hope you will give us your candid opinion for many feel we are not getting it."

And out of it, a terrible sense of frustration, not only for myself but for some 200 other U.S. correspondents still there, whose working hours are limited only by the clock as it travels from one day to the next, their jobs frequently dangerous and each day devoted to the single task of reporting "what really is happening in South Viet Nam."

And from my notebook, little items:

The wife of Nguyen Van Tan. She is 33 and looks 70. Missing teeth leave gaping holes in her smile. The remaining teeth are capped with what must be the family fortune in gold. I poke through her kitchen and observe rice cooking over a small open fire fed by coconut husks and bamboo. I taste fermented fish oil which gives the family its protein. And at the end I am invited to sit with four generations of her family and share a bowlful of ripe bananas. I like her and her family.

Lions Terrorize French Village

LILLE, France UPI — An escaped circus lion was killed by a blast of police submachinegun fire Tuesday as it ripped the throat of a circus workman trying to capture it.

The shooting capped a night of terror for the nearby village of Seclin.

The dead lion was one of six which escaped Monday night from a circus truck involved in a collision on the Lille-Paris highway.

Five were captured in a nearby forest.

Throughout Monday night the beasts prowled embankments along the highway as a posse of 100 armed policemen stalked them.

Firemen roused the village of Seclin with sirens and warning residents with loudspeakers to "close all windows and doors and stay inside" when one lion was spotted in the main street.

Two lions were lured into makeshift cages by trainers, but a third lunged at circus workman Wdaniel Des Jardins, 23, before a nearby policeman killed the beast with a burst of submachinegun fire.

Des Jardins, who suffered deep gashes in his neck, said, "I saw the lion. It was staring at me. I was paralyzed. He started toward me. Then he leaped, his jaws wide open. 'The next thing I knew, I was lying on the ground, my neck was bleeding and the lion was dead beside me.'"

Marines Tangle With Red Probers

SAIGON UPI—U.S. marines tangled with a North Vietnamese company probing their positions just south of the demilitarized zone and killed 16 in a five-hour battle, a military spokesman said today.

U.S. jets struck inside the six-mile-wide buffer zone where North Vietnamese forces are massing for what American intelligence officers believe will be a massive offensive into the northern provinces with the coming monsoon season. The jets destroyed a large fuel and ammunition dump.

A military spokesman in Saigon said Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of all American forces, and Marine commander Gen. Lewis Walt, have ordered the Marines to dig in and prepare for the assault.

Two Marine divisions have been shifted closer to the zone and for the first time American paratroopers have moved into the northern provinces to reinforce the Leathernecks.

Scattered showers drenched the jungled slopes today and the full fury of the monsoon rains was expected to hit within the next few days.

The last 4,000-man contingent of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division same ashore at Vung Tau, south of Saigon, today and was quickly loaded into transport planes and shuttled to its base camp in the Central Highlands. Their arrival boosted total U.S. fighting strength in Viet Nam to about 325,000.

Rules of War Not Observed In Vietnamese Fighting

BEN HAI, Viet Nam UPI — The rules of the war say no rumble of tanks should be heard among the sleepy farm and fishing hamlets standing placidly on the banks of the Ben Hai River.

Nor should the crackle of small arms fire echo over the muddy waterway as it meanders westward toward Laos from the South China Sea.

But the rules of war are often broken and the swoosh of jet aircraft overhead is not all that breaks the pastoral solemnity.

Here should stand the calm eye of the turbulent war. But today the eye quivers.

This is no man's land.

Today.

On some tomorrow, it may become the bloodiest battlefield of the Viet Nam war.

The Ben Hai River defines the demilitarized zone (DMZ), established by the 1954 Geneva convention as a buffer between North and South Viet Nam. Running country-wide three miles north and three miles south of the river, the DMZ is supposed to be kept free of all military activity.

But American military commanders believe there are at least two North Vietnamese divisions bivouacked in the DMZ; they think these divisions, and perhaps others, are poised to sweep over the river into South Viet Nam sometime during the current monsoon season.

The Allies have stacked six Marine Battalions just south of the DMZ in readiness for any invasion from the North.

"We're lean and mean," said a Marine commander. "I bet you we can really clobber them."

Despite International Control Commission (ICC) inspection teams, Hanoi, Saigon and the United States have all violated the DMZ.

The ICC, composed of Canada, Poland, and India has not been permitted to carry out its functions of keeping the DMZ demilitarized.

The North Vietnamese, who use the DMZ as a troop staging area for attacks on the South, refuse to allow inspections in the zone that lies in North Viet Nam.

The South Vietnamese have held an attitude of non-cooperation, rather than refusal, informing the inspectors their security could not be guaranteed if they visited certain areas.

Nevertheless, the inspectors do make almost daily trips into the DMZ in their white station wagon with its white and black ICC flag. They can be seen most mornings crossing the Ben Hai Bridge into the North to make very limited tours or relay complaints.

The United States announced last week it would stop bombing in the eastern sector of the DMZ to allow ICC teams to go in and make inspections of areas where U.S. intelligence has indicated military buildups.

Thus far, there is no indication the ICC is having any more success with the North Vietnamese than in the past.

There are two ideas on the immediate military objectives of the suspected Communist offensive, if it materializes. But all seem to agree its long range objective is political — to inflict a defeat on the United States in order to turn American public opinion against the war before the November elections and to give the Communists a strong hand in any negotiations to end the war.

Flood Toll 40

ALGIERS UPI — The death toll in eight days of severe flooding in western Algeria stood at 40, authorities estimated.

The rains have spread into the south in the last 48 hours and communications were out in many regions.

Refuses To Act

WASHINGTON UPI — The U.S. Supreme Court has refused to review a ruling by which the Indiana Supreme Court upheld Indiana's "full crew" law.

The law, which requires five crew members on all railroad trains of five cars or more and an extra brakeman on all trains of 70 cars or more, was challenged by 16 railroads. The state court ruled against the railroad last March.

It's National Fire Prevention Week...

This is when your insurance agent has to go to work for you

Any home in your neighborhood could catch on fire. If yours did, could you count on your insurance agent for help? If he's an independent agent, he's already on the job. He started when he chose from several fine insurance companies in recommending your policy. And since he owes allegiance to no one company, he serves you first when you need help. Only an independent agent displays this seal. Better make sure your man does.

If you want continuing, personal attention—The Big Difference in insurance today—call on us. As professional, independent insurance agents, we're qualified to plan all types of car, home, and business insurance... ready to give you service beyond the call of duty.
